1. Question: Will the conference presentation and attendee list be posted on DDC's website?
  - Answer: Yes, the presentation and attendee list are posted on DDC's website:
<http://designbuild.ddcanywhere.nyc>
2. Question: How do we become an approved vendor with the City?
  - Answer: Firms must register in PASSPort to become an approved vendor with New York City. Information and instructions can be found in Section 5 of the RFQ and at:
<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/mocs/systems/about-go-to-passport.page>
3. Question: Due to the Covid pandemic, will DDC still require a hard-copy SOQ submission or will there be an alternate method for submitting the SOQ electronically?
  - Answer: SOQ submissions will be made electronically to a secure portal. Information and instructions can be found in Section 5 of the Conformed RFQ, updated in Addendum No. 5 of the RFQ.
4. Question: What happens between the draft RFP and the Final RFP issued?
  - Answer: Edits may be made to the RFP document based on comments and questions received from the Short-listed firms after the Draft RFP is released. A Final RFP document will subsequently be issued for the procurement.
5. Question: How can a WBE architect become part of a DB team?
  - Answer: Firms looking to become part of a DB team can reach out to firms on the attendee list. DDC will not participate in partner networking.
6. Question: Where will the Short-listed firms be announced?
  - Answer: Short-listed firms will be posted on DDC's website:
<http://designbuild.ddcanywhere.nyc>
7. Question: Please provide a detailed summary of the vehicle sally port modifications required?
  - Answer: Detailed information regarding the sally port modifications will be provided in the RFP.
